Internal Committee(IC)
Annual Report for Academic Year 2024-2025

The Internal committee has been established in the institution with an objective of addressing the issues and guiding the stakeholders especially girl students and women staff in the institution. A committee has been constituted to look into the issues raised by the girl students and/or women staff members. The committee conducts meeting at least once in a month to guide council, ensure security, healthiness and nutrition among girl students and especially grievances if any.

For the academic year 2024-2025 the committee has not received any grievances from girl students and women staff members.
